

Tammy Golden is Director of Printing and Media Services for the Department of General Services, where she is responsible for printing, graphic design, photography, and scanning operations. Golden has a Bachelor of Business Administration degree from Belmont University. She has a background in customer service and worked in the commercial printing industry for 10 years before coming to the state in 1999. Her previous employment included Triangle Wholesale Printing in Nashville and Top Flight Inc. in Chattanooga, Tennessee.